

EVENT Name: Kickin off the New Year with some laughs

DATE/TIME: January 18th, 2019 7:00 pm

WHERE: Clinton Turners Club

ACCESS: Open to public, no cover

HIGHLIGHTS: Dinner and a Comedy Show featuring Jerry Caruso and Stephanie Elliot

MORE INFORMATION: Robin Frank - ManagerTurnerHall@gmail.com 978-365-4076

Dinner will be Pastrami sandwiches with Mac Salad for $8.00 with a cash bar. As always the public is welcome and there is no cover.

STEPHANIE ELLIOT - comedienne from Beverly, MA with only a year under her belt-has the stage presence of a seasoned professional. As an actress she appeared on stage as Donkey in "Shrek-The Musical" and for "Keith and Margo's Murder Mystery USA". Comedy performances include The Castle, Raw Fish Komedey, Hope Lodge-Boston, Smash Music Comedy, Cabot Theater Stand Up and Penny 4 YA Thoughts. She is also a frequent contributor/performer for "comics for a cure". Stephanie is also a published poet and a high functioning narcissist.

JERRY CARUSO – comedian from Gardner, MA Did you ever hear the one about a stand-up comedian turned motivational speaker? Let me introduce you to Jerry Caruso. He loves to take the time to make people laugh. This all began back at the age of 12 when Jerry began to entertain classmates at the St. Patrick's elementary school schoolyard. Jerry says, "God has blessed me with this special talent and I use this gift in ways to help those in need". Jerry is a stand-up comedian/celebrity impressionist/songwriter, an actor for Murder Mystery USA, an instructor of Stand-up Comedy at the Community College level, a cable TV talk show host AND NOW a motivational speaker on "laughter is the best medicine".